We look forward to sharing our Spring Retreat with a gifted spiritual priest.

The Rev. Ann M. Ritonia followed a rich musical path to her ordination in 2008. With degrees from The New England Conservatory of Music and Webster University in St. Louis, MO, Ann served in the Marine Corps and Marine Corps Reserves, sang with professional choirs, served as a guest conductor, and taught junior and senior high band and choral music. Ann graduated from Wesley Theological Seminary in 2007 and completed a year of Anglican Studies at Virginia Theological Seminary in 2008. In recent years Ann served at Saint Gabriel's Episcopal Church in Leesburg, St. Matthew's Episcopal Church in Sterling, and St. Anne's Episcopal Church in Reston. Ann is the Chair of the South African Partnership and has led many retreats. She lives with her husband and four children in Middleburg, Virginia.

Cost: $95.00 includes one night lodging, ($50- program only) materials, three meals, and reception.
